Choice Poetry.

AM I FOR PEACE! YES.

[This ringing lyric is said to have been written by Hon Daniel S Dickinson, of New York, in response to a letter addressed to him by a lady to know if he was not in favor of peace.]

And the suasion of shot and shell,
Till rebellion's spirit is trampled down
To the depths of its kindred hell.

For the peace which shall follow the squadron's tramp,
Where the brazen trumpets bray,
And, drunk with the fury of storm and strife,
The blood-red chargers neigh.

For the peace that shall wash out the leprous stain
Of our slavery—foul and grim,
And shall sunder the fetters which creak and clank,
On the down trodden dark man's limb.

I will curse him as a traitor, and false of heart,
Who would shrink from the conflict now,
And will stamp it, with blistering, burning brand,
On his hideous, Cain-like brow.

Out! out of the way! with your spurious peace
Which would make us rebellion's slaves;
We will rescue our land from the traitorous grasp,
Or cover it over with graves.

Out! out of the way! with your knavish schemes—
You trembling and trading pack!
That its master has driven back.

You would barter the fruit of our father's blood.
And sell out the stripes and stars,
To purchase a place with rebellion's votes,
Or escape from rebellion's scars.

By the widow's wail, by the mother's tears,
By the orphans who cry for bread,
By our sons who fell, we will never yield
Till rebellion's soul is dead.

Miscellaneous.

'Twas my Mother's

A company of poor children, who had been gathered out of the alleys and garrets of the city, were preparing for their departure to new and distant homes in the West. Just before the time for the starting of the cars, one of the boys was noticed aside from the others, and apparently very busy with a cast off garment. The superintendent stepped up to him, and found he was cutting a small piece out of the patched lining. It proved to be his old jacket, which, having been replaced by a new one, had been thrown away. There was no time to be lost. "Come, John, come," said the superintendent, "what are you going to do with that old piece of calico?"

"Please, Sir," said John, "I am cutting it out to take with me. My dear dead mother, put the lining into this old jacket for me. This was a piece of her dress, and it is all I have to remember her by." And as the poor boy thought of that dead mother's love, and of the sad death bed scene, in the old garret where she died, he covered his face with his hands, and sobbed as if his heart would break.

But the train was about leaving, and John thrust the little piece of calico into his bosom to remember his mother, hurried into a car, and was soon far away from the place where he had seen so much sorrow. Many an eye has moistened as the story of this orphan boy has been told; and many a heart has prayed that the God of the fatherless and motherless would be his friend.

Sometime.

It is a sweet song, flowing to and fro amongst the topmost boughs of the heart, and fills the air with joy and gladness as the songs of birds do, when the summer morning comes out of the darkness, and the day is born on the mountains. We have all our possessions in the future, which we call "sometime." Beautiful flowers and sweet singing birds are there; only our hands seldom grasp the one, or our ears hear, except in faint far-off strains, the other. But, oh, reader, be of good cheer, for to all the good, there is a golden "sometime!" When the hills and valleys of time are passed, when the wear and fever, the disappointment and the sorrow of life over; then there is a place and the rest appointed of God. A homestead, over whose blessed roof falls no shadow of even clouds; across whose threshold the voice of sorrow is never heard; built upon the eternal hills, and standing with the spires and pinnacles of celestial beauty, among the palm trees of the city on high, those who love God shall rest under the shadows, where there is no more sorrow, nor pain, nor sound of weeping—sometime.

☞There is something beautiful and sublime in the hush of midnight. The myriad of quiet sleepers, laying down each their life-burden, insensible alike to joy or sorrows; helpless alike—the strong man as the infant; and over all, the sleepless Eye, which since the world began, has never lost sight of one pillowed head. Thoughts like these come to us in our wakeful nighthours with an almost painful intensity.—Then eternity only seems real, and every day-life a fable. But morning comes, and the stir hum of life chase them away, as the warm sun dies upon the dewdrops, which, like these thoughts, perform their reviving mission ere they depart.

☞Fun should be cultivated as a fine art, for it is altogether a fine thing. Who ever knew a "funny" man to be a bad one? On the contrary, is he not nine times out of ten generous, humane, social and good? To be sure he is. Fun—it is a great thing. It smooths the rough places of life; makes the disposition as fresh and rosy as a maiden's kiss.

A Noble Little Girl.

Among other articles lately sent to the Sanitary Commission by the Loyal League of Manchester, Connecticut, were six bed quilts, whose history is thus given by the Hartford Post:

"The bed quilts were beautiful album quilts, all gotten up by one little girl.—Grace L. Bissel commenced, late in October, to go among the little girls and boys soliciting blocks for soldier's bed-quilts, with the name of the child contributing each inscribed thereon. On the 17th of November, she came to our rooms with her first one, and presented it as her birthdays offering to the soldiers (only nine years old) Accompanying the quilt was a letter to the soldier who shall receive it, dictated by her, in which she requests him to write to her, not alone that she may know who is made comfortable thereby, but also that she "may remember him in her little prayer that God would shield him in the hour of battle. And if he had a little girl she would pray for her too, as she had no papa at home to care for her now" In little more than two months she has collected six quilts, which the ladies of the League have quilted and forwarded to the Commission. She has traveled many miles in leaving patterns, collecting, lining, &c., besides piecing a number of blocks for each quilt, and yet her patriotic little heart and willing hands and feet tire not, and she is in earnest and enthusiastic in the work as at the commencement.

Hair at the Breton Fair.

A gentleman, who has recently travelled through Breton, thus speaks of the hair which is sold there: "There seemed to be no difficulty in finding possessors of beautiful heads of hair perfectly willing to sell. We saw several girls sheared, one after another like sheep and as many more standing ready for the shears, with their caps in their hands and their long hair combed out and hanging down to their waists. Some of the operators are men, some women. By the side of the dealers was placed a large basket, into which every successive crop of hair tied up into a wisp by itself, was thrown. As far as personal beauty is concerned, the girls do not lose much by losing their hair; for it is the fashion in Brittany to wear a close cap which entirely prevents any part of the chevelure from being seen and, of course, as totally conceals the want of it. The hair thus obtained is transmitted to the wholesale houses, by whom it is dressed, sorted and sold to the hair workers in the chief towns, at about ten francs per pound The portion of the crop most suitable for perukes is purchased by a particular class of persons, by whom it is cleaned, curled, prepared to a certain stage, and sold to the perukiers at a greatly advanced price—it may be forty or it may be eighty francs per pound. Choice heads of hair, like choice old pictures, or old china, have however, no limit to the price they may occasionally command.

Perpetual Motion

A western correspondent of Harpers' Magazine gets off the following excellent joke:—"I was travelling in Virginia by stage, and, spending the night at a country tavern, was greatly entertained by the talk of the stage drivers and others, sitting by the bar-room fire in the evening. One old codger worked off a good thing. "When I was down to the fair, a good many years ago," said the old fellow, "there was a prize offered to the one who would come the nearest to making a perpetual motion—Well, all sorts of machines, of all shapes and material, were fetched there and shown, and the makers of them told how long they would run. As I was walking about among them I saw a sign over a tent:—"All who want to see perpetual motion, and no mistake, meet here." So, I paid the admission fee, and went in. Very soon a queer little fellow got up on a box that served for a platform, and addressed the audience: "Ladies and gentlemen, I am going to exhibit to you the most wonderfullest invention you have ever seen. It has been runnin' for full three years, and if nobody stops it, it'll run forever." Here he unrolled a strip of paper. "This is a PRINTER'S BILL!" And as he held it up to the gaze of the people, they admitted that, whether the bill was paid or not, they had been sold."

Sleep vs. Wide Awake.

An Englishman can drop to sleep much more easily than an American. This is strikingly noticable on the cars. As soon as the train is fairly under way, the passenger generally begin to dose, and many of them fall asleep An American commences reading a book or newspaper: and sleeping on a railroad in this country is a rare exception instead of a general rule. An English gentleman, who had traveled considerably in the United States, remarked to us, in allusion to the different habits of English and American travelers: "In your country, pedlers go through the cars and sell cakes, candies, fruits, books, paper and toys, as they do in the streets of our cities, and the passengers eat or read. We go to sleep. The great secret of the superior health of the English is the greater amount of quiet sleep. The Americans, as a nation, are wearing out prematurely for the want of rest."

☞A sailor is not a sailor when he is a "board," a sailor is not a sailor when he is a "shore," but he must be either a shore or a board; therefore a sailor is not a sailor.

☞Why are ladies the biggest thieves in existence? Because they steel the petticoats, bone the stays, and crib the babies.

Careless People.

Only the other day our nerves were worked up to an explosion point by an account of a perilous surgical operation, by which a woman's trachea was opened to remove a silver dime which had lodged there. And how on earth did a dime ever get into a woman's wind-pipe? Simply because she was careless, and laughed with her mouth full of small coins. Was there no other place where she could put her ten cent pieces?

We do feel sorry for a creeping baby when it gets hold of the bars of the grate by mistake, or cuts its fingers, or bumps its head, but with grown people who suffer from their own recklessness we have very little patience.

What is the use of a woman converting her mouth into a pin cushion, and then expecting our sympathy, when a sudden sneeze or an unexpected cough imperils her life?

What is the use of a man balancing himself on an oscillating chair, instead of sitting up straight like a Christian? Are we expected to find vinegar and brown paper for the contusion on the back of his head when he finally comes down with a crash?

What is the use of women picking their ears with a long knitting needle, as half the women do, when a child running against her, would send the instrument three inches into her brain, if she has got any?

Things That Makes a Patriot Mad.

To hear men who have never read the Constitution, or heard it read, ranting about its violation.

To hear men who never did a day's labor in their lives, howling about the influx of negroes, and its injustice to the white laborers.

To hear men rave about the President's violation of the Constitution, who are so utterly stupid or knavish, that they have never ascertained that the rebellion is in violation of the Constitution.

To hear men who care not for law—for God or men—and who live in daily violation of law, prating about law.

To hear men who, were they south would be treated as the poorest and meanest "white trash" taunted as "mudsills," greasy "mechanics," &c., upholding the very men who so degrade labor, and despise those who do not own negroes.

To hear them justify Jeff Davis and the South, who have not the manhood and decency to go South and seek a home which they like so well.

To hear a man who loves slavery more than his country or freedom.

To hear a drunken leprous, thickheaded gaunt looking libel upon manhood, belching out abolition.

To hear a man talking about peace and compromise after he has been kicked and spit upon by the South.—Oswego Time.

Effect of a Wound.

Has anybody heard of one's tongue being seriously interfered with by a healed gunshot wound in the wrist? Major General Schenck complains of precisely that very anomaly. Nobody will have forgotten that the General was very severely wounded by a minnie ball, crushing in among the joints and tendons of the right wrist and hand, at the second battle of Bull Run. For a long time the surgeons threatened amputation as the the only security against mortification and death; but the General finally won the day against both the wound and the surgeons, and came out with a whole hand, but a stiffened wrist.

He now writes almost as well as ever with the wounded hand, but complains of a novel embarrassment when he goes to speak! Extempore speech-making it seems, is with some so intimately associated with gesticulation, that to check the one, is to embarrass the other. The General says that when, on returning to Congress, and resuming the old business of speech-making, he attempted to make a gesture, and found the stiffened limb interfered, the unexpected check constantly reacted on the sentence, and broke it down; and he complains that even yet he finds it difficult to get on in talking without the aid of his right wrist.

AN ANECDOTE OF GEN. GRANT.—It is said that when Gen. Grant was going down from Washington to the front one day last week, the train, having attached to it the special car, stopped at Brandy Station.—Some soldiers who were waiting to go down asked if they could get into the car. "No," was the answer of an officer; "this is Gen. Grant's special car." Gen. Grant, who was sitting by the window, promptly thrust out his head and said: "Gen. Grant occupies only one seat; the soldiers can ride."

☞The newsboys make the most of the sensation head lines with which the telegraphic despatches are garnished. Seeing one little fellow unusually silent a friend asked, "What is the news, my son?" "Oh, there's a whole lot of news, but nothing to holler." News, with "nothing to holler," is a bad fix for the newsboy.

☞They have sweet ladies down South. They are snuff dippers and they chew. A Tennessee writer was helping to play one of the 'kissing games' at a house warming, and he says: 'After a lively chase I caught her, and when, just as I was drawing the little angel into my arms, preparatory to embracing her, she said, Hold on a minute, —wait till I take my tobacco out of my mouth.'

☞Never trouble trouble, till trouble troubles you.

An Expensive Mania.

The demand for diamonds has increased until it assumes nearly the dimensions of a mania Three months ago diamonds were bringing prices beyond the figure that dealers supposed they would ever reach. They are at this moment higher than was ever before known in this country. Gold yesterday reached $1.79½, but when it was ten lower diamonds were about as much in demand as they are at this moment. There are two gentlemen in this city who are brokers in diamonds, with large orders on hand that cannot be filled at anything less than rates which they themselves acknowledge to be exorbitant. By one of these gentlemen we were yesterday shown six diamonds, set in a brooch, for which he paid $1150. He sold the identical gems five years before, at a good profit, for $700. A great many people are buying diamonds—or rather have been doing so—as an investment. We were shown by a diamond broker, yesterday, orders for the purchase of diamonds to a very large sum, which the said broker was unable to fill at anything comparable to a reasonable price. During the Crimean war diamonds were lower in this country in price than at any time since 1812. They are higher now than they ever were.—North American.

A Self-Educated Negro.

The Presbyterian gives an interesting account of a negro named George, now a private in the 1st Tennessee Light Artillery. While a slave on a Southern plantation he was the playmate of his master's children, and by close attention he learned the letters of the alphabet. Some time afterwards he found an old spelling book, and studied it secretly, remembering the order of the letters, until he was able to read—a long and tedious process. He then used to read books, no one suspecting him. Finally "young master" studied Latin and Greek, and George found a Latin grammar, and afterwards a Greek grammar, both of which he laboriously studied. He was then put in charge of a distillery, under a new master, whose family had an Irish tutor. The latter he paid with whiskey for private instruction, the lessons only ceasing for the increasing love of the liquor overcoming the teacher's status in the family. He is now, by the fortune of war, a free man, and in the service of his country, as stated above.

☞Jones wore the new style of spectacles—not because he needed them, but because they were new. Reading at a hotel, they dropped down his nasal organ until they were in focus with his nose, he reading all the time intently. A waggish acquaintance of his approached him saying:

Mr. Jones, why do you wear those gold bowed spectacles?"

"Ah Mr. Smith; because I am very near sighted."

"Near sighted" exclaimed Smith; "near sighted! I thought from appearances you were near-scented."

Jones looked confused for a moment and then added:

"I am far from being near-scented, for I know you were in the room before I saw you."

☞A good story is told of the rebel Gen. Wise. Whilst encamped on the Peninsula he one day was riding along some road in the vicinity of his quarters, and came upon one of his wagons which was fast stalled. The driver was a white man. Upon seeing this spectacle he reined up his horse, and looking upon John, said, "Here is a fine wagon and team going to destruction for want of a driver." The latter, fixing his eyes on the general, retorted—"Yes, and here is a fine brigade going to destruction for want of a brigadier." The general resumed his journey at a quickened pace.

☞A Chicago girl, tired of waiting for the young men who don't "propose"—probably on account of the expense, or the preponderance of girls since the war broke out—takes advantage of the season, and speaks out boldly in her own name in the "Wants" column of the Chicago Tribune, as follows: This is leap year. I'll wait no longer. So here I am, twenty one years of age, prepossessing, medium size, healthy, educated, prudent, large sparkling eyes, long black flowing hair, and as full of fun as a chesnut is full of meat, born to make some man happy and wants a home. Does anybody want me?

☞The Cockney's method of spelling Saloon is well known: Said he, "there's a hess, and a hay, and a hell, and two hoes and a hen." A gentleman travelling through Yorkshire outside of a stage coach asked the driver the name of a very pretty village they were passing through. The reply was "Hoogreen." Being asked to spell it, he replied: "We spell it with an haitch, and two hoes, gee, har, two bees and a hen."

☞"William, how did Socrates die?"—Boy (perfectly confounded)—"How did Socrates die, sir? He died—." Prompter friend on the bench (in a whisper)—"Of hemlock." Boy (triumphant)—"He died of lockjaw, sir!"

☞Why are thieves particularly lucid? Because they display the greatest perspicuity.

☞The aged King of Wurtemburg is gradually sinking, and is expected he will not survive many days.

☞Sidney Smith speaks of a man so dry that if you were to bore holes in him with a gimlet, sawdust would come out.

Eccentricities of a Lunatic.

Among the noticeable features of the execution of Hansen, in St. Louis, on Friday last, were the eccentricities of the lunatic prisoner, "Lieut. Gen. Neff, commanding," etc. From an early hour in the morning he was particularly noisy, and military disposed. Having obtained possession of a tin bucket and a couple of sticks he went through all the recognized calls, from reveille to tattoo, with a precision and vigor that would have been satisfactory to any regiment in the field.

As, however, the music was not suited to the occasion, with a fellow mortal in an adjoining cell receiving the last rites of Christianity before being turned over to the executioner, Mr. Stretch, at twelve o'clock, called at the cell and told him that he had just received orders from Washington that there should be no more music for two hours, at the expiration of which time they would "charge." "All right," said Neff, "no more music for two hours—don't forget the segars."

Obedient to orders, for two hours he was quiet as a child, but at the expiration of that time, and while the execution was progressing, he opened the "charge" on his own account, and the din was terrible. In imagination he had an army of a hundred thousand men around him, and as he issued his orders to his different divisions, brigades, and regiments, with the rapidity of the rolls upon a drum, and in a voice that could have been heard over a battle field, it was easy to imagine the attack, the assault, the repulse, the support, the hand-to-hand contest, and the final victory. Neff's great battle in the cell was rather more attractive to outsiders than the execution.

SAFETY OF DR. LIVINGSTON.—The last foreign mail settles the question of the safety of Dr. Livingstone, the African explorer, who was reported to have been killed by the natives on the Zambesi. The British war sloop Rapid has brought a letter from Bishop Tozer, dated at Murchison Falls (at the Luabo mouth of the Zambesi river), on the 21st of December, which state that Dr. Livingstone had come back from his expedition up the country, and arrived at the foot of the Murchison Falls in November, and they intended to come down the river as soon as the water rose sufficiently to get the Pioneer down. Dr. Livingston and the Bishop and the party were well in health. The mission party also intended to leave the country, as it appeared an unsuitable field, and would return to England by the Cape. The Bishop and one of his clergymen, however were to visit the Governor of Mozambique These were all the contents of the Bishop's letter.

☞"Say, Mr. Clerk, have you a good strong porter about the hotel?"

"Yes, sir, we have the strongest one in the State."

"Is he intelligent for a porter? do you consider him fearless—that is, bold, courageous?"

"I know he is; he wouldn't be afraid of Satan himself."

"Now, Mr. Clerk, if your porter is intelligent enough to find room No. 107, fearless enough to enter, and strong enough to rescue my trunk from the bed-bugs, I would like to have him bring it down."

☞A dish washing machine is the last invention. It will among other things, wash knives and forks without wetting the handles. There are so many inventions being introduced into the kitchen for saving labor, that by and by Bridget will have nothing to do but to keep the machine from going to destruction by neglect, and receiving her wages.

☞A pretty Irish girl went to the post office a few evenings since, with a letter that had no direction on it, requesting the clerk to send it to her sweetheart. "What is his name?" inquired the clerk. "Ah!" replied Bridget, "that's just what I don't want any one to know."

☞A scotch traveler in Africa, drank a bottle of brandy, and then laid down in the jungle to sleep off the effects. A swarm of drivers—a kind of ant—fell in with him, and in twenty-four hours left nothing but a clean picked skeleton and a few bootnails. They devoured even his boots and all his clothing.

☞An Irish lad, with crooked eyes, was asked what particular charm there was about his nose that attracted his attention so much. "Well," said he, "when I left my mother she tould me 'to be a good boy and keep my nose clane,' an' I've be lucking afther it ever since."

"You ought to be honest," said a Richmond rebel to his friend in office. "Honest! Why how in the devil's name can I afford it upon a salary of six hundred a year—and meat two dollars a pound!"

☞Why is a tender-hearted person like a housekeeper with but little furniture? Because he is easily moved.

☞Why is i the happiest of the vowels? Because i is in the midst of bliss; e in hell, and all others are in purgatory.

A PRINTERS CON.—Which is the most difficult punctuation? Putting a stop to a woman's tongue.

☞Why is a pig's tail like a carving knife? Because it is flourished over a ham.

LARGER CONTRIBUTION.—When the city of San-Francisco sent her first installment of good will and substantial charity to the Sanitary Commission, in the shape of draft for $100,000, it was heralded as an instance of generosity worthy of enduring record. But this municipal liberality has been equalled by an individual bounty in New York city. When the Committee on subscriptions waited upon Comodore Vanderbilt for a donation, he declared that he would give as much as any other man in New York. This was duly reported to the merchant prince, A. T Stuart, who thereupon subscribed $100,000. When the Commodore was acquainted with this unparalelled munificence he winced a little, but nevertheless handsomely paid over a like amount.

THE FAMILY OF HENRY CLAY.—The Widow of the Hon. Henry Clay, who died a few days ago, was eighty-three years old She was the mother of eleven children—six daughters and five sons, only three surviving: the eldest, Theodore, now in the lunatic asylum; Thomas H., in the foreign diplomatic service, and John M., a stock farmer in Fayette county, Kentucky.

THE NEW NICKLES.—There will soon be an abundant supply of new cents. The present small nickel cent weighs seventy-two grains, and contains eighty per cent. of copper and twelve of nickel. The new cent will consist of ninety-five per cent. of copper and five per cent of tin. They will be ready for delivery shortly.

THE NEW TWO CENT PIECE.—This new coin, which has been authorized by Congress, has, it is stated a very great resemblance to a gold coin. In the centre of one side is stamped "2 cents," and around it a wreath of wheat, and also the words, "United States of America." On the other side is the shield of Liberty, upon which are the words "God in our trust."

HEAVY SALES OF OIL TERRITORY.—The oil fever appears to have broken out anew in the Venango (Pa.) oil region, and under its influence an immense amount of territory has been disposed of within a few days. The following are among the sales reported:

The Parker farm for $100,000; the Funk farm for $150,300; the King farm for $35,000; the Noble and Delamater well and territory for $300,000; the Egbert farm for $200,000. Dalzell & Ewing have sold their oil property, located on the Hays farm, to an Eastern company for $600,000 cash. The original purchase was about $5,000.—Pittsburg Chron.

A HEN'S POWER OF ENDURANCE.—A gentleman in this borough, a few days ago, found one of his hens, which had been missing nineteen days, closely wedged in between two bundles of pressed hay. The hen during all this time had been without food or drink, yet when released from her imprisonment was able to walk and soon recovered after water had been given her.—Venango Spectator.

A WINDFALL.—A Miss Hester Conner Loughey, of Indiana county, was, a few days ago, very unexpectedly made the recipient of the snug little sum of $50,000. A distant relative, a very eccentric old gentleman, bequeathed her nearly the whole of his fortune. His alleged reason for so doing was that she, by her kind, gentle and affectionate manner towards him, had won his heart. He lived in almost perfect seclusion in the northern part of the county, and it was during a recent visit of the lady in that section that he first saw her.

A SUGAR ITEM.—A Cape Ann paper is responsible for the following: "A lady in this town sent her husband to a store, lately, to buy a dollar's worth of sugar, as the good wife was nearly out. The sugar not appearing, a few days afterward she asked husband what he had done with it. He replied, after a moment's hesitation and head-scratching, 'that he must have put it in his other vest pocket.'"

A WARNING.—A man was detected in Boston inserting a false marriage in one of the newspapers. He was arrested, tried and punished with the utmost severity, expiating his crime by confinement in a prison. Persons who undertake to impose upon the public and newspapers in this manner, should understand that they are liable to be shut up in a prison for doing so.

EXECUTION OF DESERTERS.—General Dix has ordered that privates Matthew Riley, Alias Roach and Charles Carpenter, of the Vermont volunteers, who were found guilty of desertion before a general court martial, which convened at Long Island, on Jan. 30, 1864, shall be shot to death with musketry at Fort Warren, Boston harbor, Mass., on the 22d of April.

INDIGESTIBLE.—A cow died at Oswego N. Y. last week, of a disease that baffled all the cow doctors, and a post mortum examination revealed in her stomach a steel watch chain twelve inches long, and five ounces of tenpenny nails.

THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY.
51 VESEY STREET, NEW YORK,

SINCE its organization, has created a new era in the history of selling TEAS in this Country: All our Teas are selected by a Professional Tea-taster, expressly and exclusively for us, and we never charge over Two Cents (02 Cents) per pound above cost for original packages.

We have but One Price to every one for each quality, and that price is always marked on each sample package at our store in plain figures.

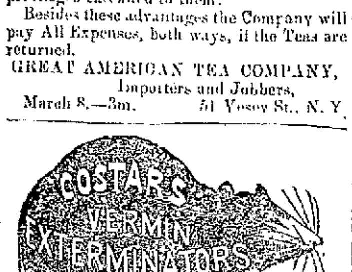

We issue a Monthly Price List of our Teas, which will be sent free to all who order it—we advise every Tea Seller to see it. It comprises a full assortment selected for every locality in the States, Provinces, South America and the West Indies. In this list each kind is divided into Four Classes or qualities, namely: Cargo, High Cargo, Fine, Finest, that every one may understand from description and the prices annexed that the Company are determined to undersell the whole tea trade.

We guarantee to sell all our Teas in original packages at not over Two Cents per pound above cost, believing this to be attractive to the many who have heretofore been paying Enormous Profits.

Our business is largely done on orders, which we always execute as well and promptly as though the buyer came himself, giving true weights and tares, and always guaranteeing everything; our responsibility enabling us to do all we promise. Every dealer can order his teas direct from the Company, and parties doing business within Five Hundred (500) miles of New York, can Return Tea bought of us if they are not cheaper than they can buy elsewhere, and the purchaser is dissatisfied with his bargain, within fourteen days, and have the money refunded to them. Those who are over Five Hundred miles can have thirty days, and the same privileges extended to them.

Besides these advantages the Company will pay All Expenses, both ways, if the Teas are returned.

CURE YOUR COUGH FOR 13 CENTS.
The Best and Cheapest Household Remedy in the World.
MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S
GREAT COUGH REMEDY,

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Curative Balsam is warranted if used according to the directions, to cure in all cases Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat & Lungs.

Madame Zadoc Porter's Balsam is prepared with all the requisite care and skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords, its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the blood, thro' the Lungs. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient, warming, searching and effective; can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

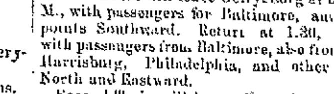

Madame Zadoc Porter's Balsam has been in use by the public for over 18 years, and has acquired its present sale simply by being recommended by those who have used it to their afflicted friends and others.

MOST IMPORTANT.—Madame Zadoc Porter's Curative Balsam is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its cost.

NOTICE. Save your money! Do not be persuaded to purchase articles at 4s to $1 which do not contain the virtues of a 13 cent Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is as great as that of almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 13 cents, and in large bottles at 25 cents, and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

The One Thing Needful.

PHYSICIANS, with a unanimity that is truly remarkable, now recommend to their patients the use of Dr. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, as a preventive against all sorts of weakness. They give tone to the system, by purifying the blood, and invigorating the digestive apparatus. Mothers who are nursing, and old men find them invaluable.—They should be introduced into our Hospitals, and if they were more generally used among our soldiers, all camp diseases would disappear. These Bitters have been before the public over fifteen years, and their popularity is still on the increase. Their reputation is known in every country upon the globe, and in fact they are more universally used than all others. We do not urge any one to take these Bitters, who imagine that no benefit will be derived therefrom, but this we do know, that those who have used them, would not be without them for the world. Barlow's Indigo Blue.

DEALERS and Consumers of the above CELEBRATED WASH BLUE, will please take notice, that the LABELS are altered to read INDIGO BLUE, put up at Alfred Wiltberger's Drug Store,
No. 233 North Second Street, Philadelphia.

The quality of this Blue will be the same in every respect.

It is warranted to color more water than twice the same quantity of Indigo, and to go much further than any other Wash Blue in the Market. It dissolves perfectly clear and does not settle on the clothes as most of the other makes do. One Box dissolved in a half pint of water, will make as good a Liquid Blue as any that is made, at one third the cost.

As it is retailed at the same price as the Imitations and Inferior Articles, housekeepers will find it very much to their advantage to ask for that put up at WILTBERGER'S.

GREAT DISCOVERY!
KUNKEL'S
BITTER WINE OF IRON,

FOR the cure of weak Stomachs, General Debility, Indigestion, Diseases of the Nervous System, Constipation, Acidity of the Stomach, and all cases requiring a Tonic.

This Wine includes the most agreeable and efficient Salt of Iron we possess: Citrate of Magnetic Oxide combined, with the most energetic of vegetable tonics Yellow Peruvian Bark. The effect in many cases of debility, loss of appetite, and general prostration, of an efficient Salt of Iron, combined with our valuable Nerve Tonic, is most happy. It augments the appetite, arouses the pulse, takes off muscular flabbiness, removes the palor of debility, and gives a florid vigor to the countenance.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If you do, try
KUNKEL'S BITTER WINE OF IRON!

This truly valuable Tonic has been so thoroughly tested by all classes of the community, that it is now deemed indispensable as a tonic medicine. It costs but little, purifies the blood, gives tone to the stomach, renovates the system, and prolongs life. We now only ask a trial of this valuable Tonic.

COUNTERFEITS.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.—As KUNKEL'S Bitter Wine of Iron is the only sure and effectual remedy in the known world for the permanent cure of Dyspepsia and Debility, and as there are a number of imitations offered to the public, we would caution the community to purchase none but the genuine article, manufactured by S. A. Kunkel, and his stamp on the top of the cork of every bottle. The very fact that others are attempting to imitate this valuable remedy, proves its worth and speaks volumes in its favor.

The Bitter Wine of Iron is put up in 75 cent and $1.00 bottles, and sold by all respectable Druggists throughout the country. Be particular that every bottle bears the fac simile of the proprietor's signature.

FROM innumerable recommendations, we gather the following:

Letter from Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher, in 1861.

I am most happy to speak in the very highest terms of the "UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER." The hardest part of "washing day" work is in my opinion, the wringing: and the inventor of this machine may have the satisfaction of feeling that he has changed one of the most toilsome parts of woman's work into a very attractive amusement. The laundress looks upon upon it as a great blessing. I look upon it as among the most useful articles in the house.

MANNY'S PATENT

Combined Reaper and Mower,

WITH WOOD'S IMPROVEMENT.

THIS Machine is presented to the farming community as THE BEST combined Reaper and Mower made. The large number sold in this State are still in successful operation, and have proven the principles of its construction to be the ones to secure durability, ease of operation, adjustability to uneven surfaces, closeness of swath, lightness of draft and freedom from side draft.

Important Improvements have been made, (none of which are represented in the cuts,) to wit: In place of wooden cutter bar is now used one of best quality of steel, with new and improved guards, and knives which will cut close and clean, and make the Machine run much easier. The frame of Machine has been altered at the end of the cutter bar, to enable Machine to pass over a larger swarth of cut grass. It is now constructed to mow (frame of Machine being detached) with naked cutter bar, and on two wheels instead of one, as before used. A steel pitman, or connecting rod, is used in place of iron. Machine goes out of gear [knives standing still] when backed. Grain platform has been so altered that throwing off by hand is much easier than formerly.

The undersigned is still Agent for the sale of the Manny Reaper and Mower in this county, and will be happy to fill orders for it. He has one set up at his Warehouse, in Gettysburg, and requests those in want of such a machine to call and see it.

Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Croup and every affection of THE THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

So general has the use of this remedy become, and so popular is it every where that it is unnecessary to recount its virtues. Its works speak for it, and fine utterance to the abundant and voluntary testimony of the many who from long suffering and settled disease have by its use been restored to pristine vigor and health. We can present a mass of evidence in proof of our assertions, that CANNOT BE DISCREDITED.

THE REV. JACOB SECHLER,

Well known and much respected among the German population in this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted.

HANOVER, PA., Feb. 16, 1859.

DEAR SIRS:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it, JACOB SECHLER.

"Having used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for about fifteen years, and having realized its beneficial results in my family, it affords me great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a valuable remedy in cases of weak lungs, colds, coughs, &c., and a remedy which I consider to be entirely innocent, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate in health.

I have on several occasions used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for severe colds, and always with decided benefit. I know of no preparation that is more efficacious or more deserving of general use.

The Balsam has also been used with excellent effect by J. B. Elliott, Merchant, Hall's Cross Roads, Md.

RUSSELL'S SCREW POWER

Combined Mower and Reaper,

IMPROVED FOR THE YEAR 1864.

FARMERS wishing to purchase a good Machine—one of the most simple and durable that has been manufactured to our knowledge—a machine acknowledged by Machinists, not interested, to come the nearest to perfection, of anything they ever saw. This machine has no side draft, no pressure on the horses' necks, and for lightness of draft cannot be surpassed. It can be easily worked with a span of small horses, in the heaviest grain or grass, without fagging. It is easily changed from a Mower to a Reaper. This Machine has given satisfaction wherever sold and used. Certificates have been published to that effect, which will be found in my circulars, left at most of the public places. GREAT IMPROVEMENTS have been made since last season which will render the machine still more efficient and durable. Farmer's examine this machine and judge for yourselves before purchasing elsewhere. We give the privilege of trying the machine before purchasing. Extras kept on hand in case of breaking. A specimen machine can be seen by calling with the subscriber, near Gettysburg, Harrisburg Road.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart Bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulant of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get one Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with three quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those suffering from broken down and delicate Constitutions, from whatever cause, either in male or female, will find in Hoofland's German Bitters, a remedy that will restore them to their usual health. Such has been the case in thousands of instances, and a fair trial is but required to prove the assertion.

Remember, that these Bitters are not Alcoholic, and not intended as a Beverage.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN

Philadelphia, June 23, 1861.

DISEASES OF KIDNEYS & BLADDER

In young or aged, male or female, are speedily removed, and the patient restored to health

DELICATE CHILDREN,

Those suffering from Marasmus, wasting away, with scarcely any flesh on their bones are cured in a very short time; one bottle in such cases, will have a most surprising effect.

PARENTS

LITERARY MEN, STUDENTS,

and those working hard with their brains, should always keep a bottle of Hoofland's Bitters near them, as they will find much benefit from its use, to both mind and body, invigorating and not depressing. It is not a liquor stimulant, and leaves no prostration.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

And the friends of Soldiers. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from sufferers in the army and hospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION OF A STEAM BOILER.

Killed and Wounded—Incidents.

At twenty five minutes before eight o'clock Tuesday morning, a steam-boiler at the large factory of Messrs. Cornelius & Baker, manufacturers of chandeliers and gas fixtures, on Cherry street, below Ninth, exploded with terrific effect, killing four persons instantly, and badly wounding eighteen or twenty others, one of whom died in the course of a few hours. The manufactory formed a hollow square, is five and a half stories high, and fireproof throughout. Had it been an ordinary building, a portion of it would have been crushed into a mass of ruins. The boilers and engine were located on the north side of the yard, in front of the northern wing of the manufactory, in a substantial fireproof building

At the time of the explosion the factory was in full operation. Hundreds of the working people, finding that the usual place of egress was obstructed, became panic-stricken, and several jumped from the windows and escaped with slight bruises. In a few minutes Chief Ruggles, who resides in the vicinity, was upon the ground, and under his direction ladders were, obtained, iron windows were smashed in, and by this means many of the hemmed in and affrighted operatives were released from their temporary imprisonment. The windows of the manufactory which overlook the yard are one hundred and fifty in number. Every pane of glass was smashed, and even, some of the iron frame-work that formed the sash was twisted into different shapes or entirely removed. The boiler flue being of brick, six or seven feet wide, two feet thick, and perhaps eighty feet high, was reduced to a shapeless pile in less time than it takes to write about it. Bricks and other missiles were forced through the windows with as much velocity as though they had been fired from a big gun. A number of workmen were wounded by these death dealing messengers.

The explosion was attended with fatal, curious and interesting effects. A piece of the boiler, forty inches in diameter and seven or eight feet in length, was projecting in a due west direction. Incredible as it may appear, it reached a distance of at least 1,300 feet, in falling it crushed through the roof of the mineral-water manufactory of Messrs. Johnson & Co., in Cherry street, east of Twelfth, and instantly killed a fine healthy, robust man, named John Porter. He was loading a wagon with mineral water. The piece of boiler struck him on the back part of the head, crushing the skull. Five boys and a man were engaged in bottling, within ten feet of the spot where the piece of boiler lodged. One of the boys was struck in the head with a splinter, and received a slight laceration of the scalp. What seems singular is, that this piece of boiler, after passing through the roof, bounced as it struck the ground and then fell again, on, or near the wagon that the unfortunate Mr. Porter was loading. He has left a wife and one child.

Another piece of the boiler flew off in an easterly direction, and fell in Eighth street, near Cherry, twisting an iron awning post. The steam drum, 20 feet long attached to the boiler, was forced with great velocity in a southerly direction. In descending it crushed through the roof and floor of the William Penn stables, killing one horse instantly, and so much injuring one or two others that they will probably have to be killed. One of the horses was considerably burnt by the drum. An iron girder was projected in almost a perpendicular course, and in falling lodged in the gutter on Cherry street, in front of the factory. The surrounding property came in for a share of falling bricks; roofs and window shutters were more or less damaged by them.

The foundry of Mr S. Creswell, in the vicinity, came in for a full share, and one or two of the workmen were slightly injured. The William Penn stables are located seven hundred feet from the place of explosion. Mr. Albertson who died at the hospital, was injured at the stables. At the time of the crash there were about fifty nine at breakfast in the building on the opposite side of the yard, within forty feet of the place where the steam drum fell.

The engine from which the machinery derives its motive power was not much injured. Though frightful as the explosion may seem to be, much of the work in the factory will be resumed at once. New boilers are ordered, and will be placed in position in a few days.

The cause of the explosion will be for the coroner and his jury to investigate. We state that the engineer has been employed in the establishment for a period of about ten years, is a competent and careful man He was attending to his business as usual. The water-pump was open, and had been so for some time, supplying speedily about as much of the acqueous element as the steam exhausted. There was a pressure of sixty-five pounds of steam on, and as the engine was not working as fast as the usual rate of speed, a heavier pressure was contemplated

The engineer had gone into another part of the building to obtain some oil or something else, and was just about to return to the engine when the explosion took place. Messrs. Cornelius and Baker, feeling the immense responsibility resting upon them, had exercised every precaution against such a deplorable accident. A steam gage had been placed in the office, so that a watchful eye could be kept upon it by the heads of the department. One of the clerks of the establishment informed us, yesterday morning, that this also indicated a pressure of sixty five pounds. The boilers, every now and then, had been inspected. They were carefully overhauled on Saturday night, and the steam entirely blown out. Yesterday morning the boilers were full of water. These are the facts that we are enabled to glean, and they will be subjected to an investigation by the jury.

CINCINNATI, April 23.—A despatch from Columbus contradicts the report that Crawford county, Ohio, has been placed under martial law. The military authorities have no knowledge of such a step having been taken or contemplated.

NEW YORK April 23.—The shipments of gold to-day to Europe were one million three hundred and seventy five thousand dollars per steamer Etna, and five hundred thousand dollars per steamer Virginia.

THE ADAMS SENTINEL,

GETTYSBURG:

Tuesday Evening, May 3, 1864.

The Choice of the People for President,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

☞Miss McCreary has returned from the city with her spring styles, and the ladies will do well to give her a call.

☞The "Ladies' Friend" and the "Ladies' Book," for May, are upon our table. They both contain their usual amount of interesting reading for the ladies.

☞We would call the attention of our readers to the sale of some valuable Chestnut Timber land, for sale on the 23d of May, by Daniel D. Gitt.

☞We are requested to state that the Lord's Supper will be administered at Lower Marsh Creek Church, (Rev. Mr. Warner's) next Sabbath. Preparatory exercises commencing on Saturday.

☞The "Ladies' Aid Society, for the Christian Commission," has been fully organized. The following committe has been appointed, and meetings will be held every Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock at Mrs. T. D. Carson's. We hope to see every one who feels an interest in the welfare of our brave soldiers.

Railroad Sold.

The Littlestown Railroad was sold at public outcry on Thursday last, at $25,100—purchased by Ephraim Myers, in trust for the first and second mortgage bondholders and the Hanover Branch Railroad Company. As soon as the conveyance is completed, a new corporation will be organized.

☞DEATH OF A SOLDIER.—We are pained to record the death of James Steinour, of Arendtsville, a member of Company F. 87th P. V., under most melancholy circumstances. He had re-enlisted, and was home on furlough. On Tuesday last, in company with several of his companions, he visited Middletown, on horseback, and whilst on the return to Gettysburg, near Keckler's old tavern stand, the horse he was riding stumbled badly, throwing Mr. Steinour violently to the ground and so seriously injuring him as to cause his death on Thursday, at the residence of Mr. John Fisher, in this place, to which he was removed immediately after the accident. His remains were buried at Arendtsville on Friday, the furloughed soldiers in town forming an impressive escort, under command of Corporal Wm. Holtzworth. His age was 24 years 5 months 28 days. Peace to his ashes.—Compiler.

☞The Company who recently purchased the Mount Alto Iron Works contemplate constructing a railroad from that point to Scotland, on the Cumberland Valley. A bill incorporating the company for the purpose has already passed the House, and no doubt will be concurred in by the Senate, so that the work will likely be commenced in a very short time.

☞It may be of interest to many of our readers to learn that soldiers who have served less than two years, and have been discharged on account of wounds, cannot receive a Government bounty, as no appropriation has yet been made for the payment of the same. Information to this effect has been received from the proper authorities at Washington, by a gentleman in this city. It is, therefore, useless for those who have served less than two years to apply for bounty; no claim agent can collect it.—Har. Tel.

☞The Secretary of the Treasury acknowledged the receipt of $2.50 from a clergyman of the Catholic church, to whom the money was paid, through the confessional, by a person who acknowledged it to be due the United States.

SELECTION OF THE SITE FOR THE STATE MONUMENT UPON THE BATTLE-FIELD OF ANTIETAM.—Gov. Bradford, Robert Fowler, Esq., State Treasurer, Gen. Shriver, Col. Harwood and several other gentleman returned to this city on Saturday last, from the battle-field of Antietam, whither they had been for the purpose of selecting thereon a site for the monument ordered to be erected by the Legislature of the State. The position selected is about the centre of the battle field, and upon the right side of the road leading into the town of Sharpsburg, and is said to be especially appropriate for the object desired.—Sun.

THE REMOVAL OF THE STATE CAPITAL.—The question of removing the seat of Government from Harrisburg to Philadelphia was finally disposed of yesterday by a vote of nineteen yeas to seventy-one nays.—Harrisburg Tel.

Death of Finley Johnson.

Mr. Finley Johnson, a well-known Baltimorean, but for some time past employed as a clerk in the Quartermaster's Department in Washington, died in that city, on Wednesday, 27th ult., from inflamation of the bowels. He was taken sick on the Sunday previous. He was an engraver of wood by profession, but the greater part of his time was devoted to the writing of verse, in which he had gained some celebrity.—He was 38 years of age, and was married but a few months since. He had many warm friends in this city, who doubtless will regret his early and sudden demise.—Balt. Sun.

Loyal Women.

On the 23d ult, Lieutenant J. W. Strong Assistant Provost Marshal, stationed at Onancock, Accomac county, Va, received information that a lot of contraband goods had been landed on the south end of Smith's Island, Va., and on his arrival at the place he learned that six women of the following names, Mrs Rachel Spence, Sophia Evans Margeret Dies, Jane Hoffman and Jane Stant, all residents of the Island, and who had but the day before taken the oath of allegiance, had heard that a large canoe loaded with goods intended to run the blockade across to the Western shore of Virginia. As there were no men present to seize the boat and goods, the six named women thought it their duty to capture it if possible. The boat lay concealed about one and a half miles distant, and it was a difficult matter to get to it; but these women had some little experience in sailing a boat, so they started after it, and reached the boat in safety, and took the goods to a Mr. Spencer's house, where they kept guard over them until the Provost Marshal arrived and disposed of them.

☞The reinforcements for General Lee from South Carolina and Georgia, are rapidly reaching him. General Beauregard passed through Wilmington with a large force on Thursday last. All the troops in Augusta had left for Richmond. General Longstreet is ascertained to be at Charlottsville, Va., where he holds his army as reserve to General Lee. General Butler, it is reported, telegraphs the President that the Rebels are abandoning North Carolina and concentrating their forces with those of Lee for the defence of Virginia.

Working Guns by Steam.

The St. Louis Union describes some interesting experiments with a new invention in that city, devised for the purpose of working heavy guns by steam power. The plan was tested last week on board a monitor. The Union says:

Two eleven inch Dahlgren guns are so completely under the control of one man in it, and handled with as much ease by him, and with almost as much celerity, as a pair of duelling pistols could be. Every movement of the guns is made by steam.—They are run out of their ports by it, and their recoil checked by it, they are lowered into the hold by steam for loading, and raised again to be fired, and all these movements are made in as little time as it has taken to relate it.

The perfect ease and accuracy with which every movement was gone through excited the admiration of the whole party. Four shots were aimed by Gen. Rosecrans at a target, about three quarters of a mile distant, some ten or twelve feet square, and each one struck it fairly. The firing from it is much more rapid than from the Ericsson turrets. The fifteen and twenty inch guns can be handled in this way quite as easily as those in this turret. The eleven-inch guns can be withdrawn from their ports, lowered and loaded and returned ready for firing in sixty seconds. The horizontal range is obtained by the rotation of the turret.

Latest from North Carolina.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 28.—The mail steamers from Newbern arrived to-day. The capture of Plymouth, including Gen. Wessel's command, is confirmed.

A Succesful Union Raid.

WASHINGTON, April 28—The Navy Department has received a communication from Rear Admiral Lee, in which he says: "The statements of refugees received on board the Niphon, on the 7th ult., indicate that the extensive and valuable State salt works in that vicinity were weakly defended and might be destroyed, I directed Captain Sands to organize a boat expedition. under the command of Lieut. Breck, to effect this important object.

I am happy to inform the Department of the complete success of the expedition which resulted in the destruction of one large steam-pump, with boilers; about two hundred salt pans; the large vats, reservoirs, and out-building, of the establishment A large wind-mill, fifty or sixty Government furnaces and boilers, were blown to fragments with 30-pound shell.

One hundred and fifty conscripts were captured, of whom but fifty could be brought off in the boats. Complete order and discipline was observed, much to the credit of the officers and men engaged—The work was quickly done, and the vigilance of the military force close by completely deluded."

COLONEL FISH SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY.—The Washington Republican of Saturday evening says:

Col. Fish, lately Provost Marshal of Baltimore under Gen Schenk, and tried recently by court martial, has been sentenced to the Albany penitentiary one year without labor.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 26.—The Petersburgh (Va.) Express of April 22, says:

"Instructions have been given to the First Auditor to remove his bureau from Richmond to Montgomery, Alabama, next week."

MOBILE, April 19.—The Red river has suddenly fallen, leaving forty transports and gunboats above the raft, which cannot get out until the water rises."

UNION STATE CONVENTION.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN RENOMINATED.

DELEGATES AND ELECTORS CHOSEN.

HARRISBURG, April 28.—The Union State Convention, called for the purpose of placing in nomination an electoral ticket, selecting delegates at large to the Baltimore National Convention, and to take such action as it may deem proper in reference to the approaching Presidential campaign, was here to-day. There was a full attendance of delegates, and during the morning the Senate and House were filled with representatives from their number.

The delegates from Philadelphia are as follows.

SENATORIAL.—R. C. Tittermary, J. C. Duhadway, Abel Lukens, and C. Thompson Jones.

LEGISLATIVE.—E. Cobb, J. W. Frazier, L. J. Hurst, W. W. Watt, Henry E. Wallace, J. L. Hill, John Fry, Wm. Leids, C. M. Neal, R. M. Evans, B. G. Mann, James McManus, Dr J. R. Trenchard, Geo. H. Moore, Thos. Dixon, Wm. Simpson, and W. J. P. White.

The Convention was called to order at 12 M. by Mr. Wayne McVeagh, chairman of the State Central Committee.

The House of Representatives was crowded with the delegates. Mr. Serrill of Delaware county, nominated John P. Penney for temporary chairman. Mr. Penney declined on account of physical disability.

Mr. Bergner nominated Senator Henry Johnson. The nomination was followed by his election, the vote being unanimous.

Mr. Johnson returned thanks for the honor. Samuel Alleman, of Dauphin; John H. Stuart, of Allegheny; David L. Barnes of Fayette; George H. Moore, of Philadelphia and and Conrad Schindle, of Schuylkill, were elected temporary secretaries. The credentials of the delegates were then presented.

It was moved and agreed to, that the four contested seats be referred to a committee of seven.

Mr. Bergner moved that one person from each Congressional district be appointed to prepare an address and resolutions, and to report the names of two electors at large and one from each district, and four delegates at large to the Baltimore Convention and that the delegates be and they are instructed to vote as a unit for Abraham Lincoln, and to adhere to him as long as his name is before the Convention. (Applause.)

Some discussion ensued as to the propriety of adopting the resolution before a permanent organization was effected, and the resolution was finally postponed.

Mr. Lincoln will be the almost unanimous choice

The chairman announced Messrs. Frazier. Fry, Bergner, Olmstead, Bound. Serrill, and Householder as a Committee on Credentials.

The Convention then adjourned till 3 o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Committee on Permanent Organization made a report nominating Mr. Wm. V. Lawrence, of Washington county, for President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The report was adopted, and Mr Lawrence took the Chair and delivered an address, in which he eulogized the Union party as being the only one able to save the country. He said that nineteen-twentieths of all the soldiers in the army belonged to organizations that favored the re-election of Abraham Lincoln. (Applause) A committee on resolutions was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Penney, of Alleghany; Bergner. of Dauphin; Campbell, of Schuylkill; Wallace of Philadelphia; Wilson, of Tioga; Serrill of Delaware, and Rowe of Franklin.

A resolution was offered by Mr Bergner, that the electors at large be instructed to support Abraham Lincoln for President, and to oppose all efforts to postpone the Baltimore Convention.

Mr. Corvell offered an amendment, that one of the hardest blows that could be inflicted on the Rebels would be certainly the re-election of Abraham Lincoln.

The resolution, as amended, was adopted.

Mr. Penny moved to proceed to ballot for four delegates to the Baltimore Convention. Agreed to, and the vote was for

Simon Cameron	94
Wm. H. Mann	54
James Campbell	29
Alex. McClure	79
Morrow B. Lowry	60
A. H. Reeder	26
W. W. Ketchum	55
P. Frazer Smith	38
Thomas Cunningham	11
George Landon	18
Darwin Phelps	4
Thomas Howe	56

Messrs. Simon Cameron and Alexander McClure were declared elected, and a second ballot was had for the remaining delegates, with the following result:

Howe	55
Lowry	80
Mann	11
Ketchum	68
Smith	23
Campbell	5
Reeder	16

Morrow B. Lowry was declared to be the third delegate.

Another ballot was had for the fourth and last delegate, resulting in the election of Ketchum by 91 votes, over Mr. Mann with 41 votes.

The Convention then proceeded to nominate two Senatorial electors and Thomas Cunningham, of Beaver, and Morton McMichael were unanimously chosen by acclamation. The Convention then adjourned until evening.

The Committee on Address made a report. The address sets forth that the honor and glory of the people were sufficient reasons for urging the re-election of Mr. Lincoln, whose administration has presented all the powers and resources of the Government in their strongest light. It was necessary for the successful prosecution of the war that there should be no change in the Administration at Washington, for any such change would involve a change of measures and of military and civil labors, which could only result in ruin to the National credit and National cause. If, on the contrary President Lincoln is re elected, it will in effect re-affirm the principles which he has upheld, and the rebellion will be crushed.

The address pays a high tribute to the influence of the personal virtues of the President, to his firmness and impartiality, and concludes with a statement that his success in the next campaign will not be a triumph of party merely, but the triumph of a great principle.

The resolutions are five in number. The first endorses the policy of the National Administration in the prosecution of the war and punishment of traitors—a policy, which, if carried out, will result in the triumph of the arms and power of the Government. The second resolution renders thanks to Governer Curtin, who deserves the respect of all loyal men and who is entitled to credit as a just and tried officer who has sustained the honor of Pennsylvania and its dignity.

The third resolution eulogizes the alacrity of Governor Curtin in contributing to the National defences, with all the resources of the Keystone State.

The fourth resolution thanks loyal Senators and members at Harrisburg for a faithful performance of their trust, particularly for giving right of suffrage to the soldiers.

The fifth resolution returns thanks to brave soldiers in the field, who have sacrificed, the comforts of home for the maintenance of the principles of our Government.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously.

Senator Lowry was called on for a speech He was followed by Messrs. McClure, Ketchum and others The Convention continued in session to a late hour.

The speakers, without exception, eulogized President Lincoln, and were highly applauded. The Convention adjourned sine die.

Hon. Simon Cameron has been chosen Chairman of the Union State Central Committee.

The Pennsylvania Militia.

It is not probable that there will be a call made on Gov. Curtin for the militia of the State, at this time. We understand, however, that the militia of the Western States were tendered and accepted by the President, to protect Cincinnati, Cairo, Paducah, Columbus, and exposed points on the Mississippi river. The militia of New York are to garrison the fortifications in New York harbor, and the New England militia are to perform the same service in the fortifications of Boston harbor, and along the eastern coast.

Governor Curtin tendered militia before the battle of Chancellorsville, to garrison the fortifications around Washington city, and he has ever since been in readiness to furnish troops when needed by the authorities. If the militia were taken from the State now, to be of service to the Government, it would be necessary for such forces to go to Virginia; and the points there are too important and too much exposed to be garrisoned by green troops; and in case of invasion, the military force of the State would be thus exhausted, and our border left at the mercy of the invader. We are happy to have it in our power to announce that the most cordial reciprocal feeling exists between the national and State authorities, and that in any emergency which may occur, there is a perfect understanding to control and give force to their combined action.—Har. Telegraph

The Northwestern Reserve Army.

The Republican says that, on Saturday, Governors Lewis, of Wisconsin; Yates, of Illinois; Stone, of Iowa; Morton, of Indiana; Brough, of Ohio, and Blair, of Michigan, jointly tendered to the President of the United States 100,000 men, to serve 100 days, to be clothed, armed, and equipped by the United States Government, the men, to be raised within the limits of the several Northwestern States named. The proposition was accepted by the President, and the Secretary of War was subsequently instructed to receive these troops. Four or five of the above named Governors have issued their State proclamations in this city, and sent them forward on Saturday. The first proposition made to the Government by the Northwestern Governors was that the President should issue his proclamation for 100,000 men for six months; but, owing to difficulties which could not be immediately overcome, they agreed to make the proposition mentioned. It is believed by the gentlemen who have tendered this new auxiliary force that they will be able to raise it within twenty five days. The new army will garrison all the forts on the frontier, and in the rear of active operations, thus enabling the veterans now doing post and garrison duty to join the armies.

The Auxiliary Force Volunteered for the Northwestern States.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The following letter accompanied the joint resolution appropriating $25,000,000, which was so expeditiously passed by the House to-day, just previous to the recess:

WAR DEPARTMENT, April 25.—Sir: The Governors of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin have tendered to the President, on the 23d ultimo, a large number of volunteers from their respective States for service during the present campaign. They are expected to number from eighty to one hundred thousand men—the term of service to be one hundred days from mustering. It is believed they can render useful service. They are to be paid no bounty, and are not to diminish or delay the draft for three years' men in the States where the quota of the pending draft is not filled up. The quota is filled up in Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin, and less than two thousand are due Ohio. The expense of these troops is not provided in the war debt estimates heretofore submitted.

It is estimated that $25,000,000 will meet the cost of one hundred thousand of these extra volunteers, and I respectfully recommend a special appropriation for that purpose, and submit a joint resolution for that purpose. The impending operations render it expedient that there should be early action by Congress on the proposition so that if sanctioned all needful provision may be made in due season.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully your obedient servant,

EDWIN M. STANTON.

☞A singular fact has been disclosed by Surgeon McGowan, who has been taking physical measurements of the Chippewa Indians, now in Washington, viz: that the average size of the crania of the red men is greater than that of the whites The Head of Chief Queone-qaee-ish meariuna ("Bad Boy") measures one inch in every direction more than that of Mr. Chase, the cast of whose head is the largest in Mr. Mill's collection.

The Siege of Charleston.

The Charleston Mercury has an article on the 208th day of the siege of that city, and remarks:

"The enemy kept up a brisk fire upon the city on Thursday, firing between forty and fifty shells. About one o'clock a Parrot shell entered the roof of Alexander Duncan's work shop, at the foot of Hasell street, struck on the anvil and bursted.—Two young men and a negro boy were standing by the anvil at the time of the explosion. The two white men escaped uninjured. The negro boy, named Aaron, belonging to Mrs. Heath, was struck on the shoulder, and the left arm broken. He also received several severe bruises on the head. It is believed that amputation of the arm will be necessary. Between thirty and forty shells have been fired at Fort Sumter since our last, most of which struck, but did no damage. The enemy were again busy at the 'Swamp Angel' on Thursday. There was no change in the fleet."

The War in the Southwest.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—Advices from Memphis of the 22d say that Forrest's entire force were moving towards Alabama, followed by Grierson. Polk was said to be marching North, and Forrest would probably join him.

On the morning of the 21st Grierson's cavalry came upon some of Forrest's troops near Huntsville, when a sharp fight ensued. The Rebels retreated in the direction of Jackson, passing through Lagrange. A number of prisoners, horses, mules and wagons were captured from them and taken to Memphis.

Grierson has picked up a few of Forrest's men, but Forrest has kept his troops well together, and is too strong for a successful attack. His Headquarters are still at Jackson, Tenn.

THE FORT PILLOW MASSACRE.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—Messrs Wade and Gooch, of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, arrived at Cairo on the 21st, to investigate the Fort Pillow massacre.—Generals Hurlbut, Chetlain and Legget were also there.

Nearly two thousand bales of cotton have arrived at Cairo since the 22nd instant—about 1,000 of it for Cincinnati, 400 bales for Louisville, and 280 for Evansville.

The Memphis cotton market was firm, with considerable inquiry. Holders were keeping back their stock for higher prices. The receipts were 160 bales, and prices ranged at 64 to 69 cents.

The steamer Idaho collided with a gunboat, and was sunk, at Paducah, on Friday. She can be raised.

About a hundred guerillas burned a large wood near Barfield Point on Friday, and captured a number of the citizens of Brownsville.

DESPERATE FIGHT AMONG THE CHIPPEWAS.—In the United States Hotel, about half-past seven o'clock this morning, a desperate encounter occurred between Hole-in-the-Day, the Chief of the Chippewas, and Look Around, one of his young warriors, in which pistols and knives were used, and blood was freely shed on both sides. From the statements of persons present it appears that the Indians had been indulging rather freely in intoxicating drinks last night and this morning, Look-Around being drunk, was decorating his head-dress with ornaments that Hole in the Day thought were above his grade, and he told Look Around that he was not man enough to wear them yet. This provoked Look-Around, and he assaulted the Chief, and fired two shots from a pistol, one of which took effect near the neck and behind the right ear of the Chief, and passing around his head came out of his mouth. Hole-in-the-Day had a pocket knife which he used upon his opponent, cutting him accross the nose near the forehead and below the gristle. The combatants were not separated until each was very weak from loss of blood. They were taken to their rooms in the hotel, and proper surgical attention secured for them. Look Around is not seriously injured, but fears are entertained for the safety of Hole-in-the-day, who, though sensible, is very weak from loss of blood.—Washington Star.

A Project to Light and Warm Philedelphia.

HARRISBURG, April 23.—An act has been introduced into the Pennsylvania Legislature to incorporate a company with power to lay pipes through any of the streets of Philadelphia, and to supply all dwellings with gas and steam for heating purposes. The bill creates an immense monopoly, and is what is known as a "close" corporation. Parties connected with the Philadelphia Gas Works have been to Harrisburg to oppose the bill, which, it is understood, is asked for by a New York company, who have both ability and determination to carry out the project.

THE UNITED STATES TREASURY.—The statement that the United States Treasury is largely in arrears is without foundation. We learn that there is not a single requisition for a dollar due from the Government now unpaid at the Department, nor has there been for several days. The balance at the disposal of the Treasurer is now not less than $20,000,000.

☞A coroner's jury in Saratoga county N. Y., lately gave the following verdict: Nathaniel Denton came to his death by a collision with the engine near Simmon's crossings, of which we exonerate the engineer from all blame. But further, we think the engineer and the deceased might have seen each other, and perhaps, yes, very likely, have saved his life, if the wood pile sworn to, had not have been there.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The Sanitary Fair closed last night, having realized $1,011,000. The result of the voting for the disposition of the army sword was—Grant 30,361, McClellan 14,509, scattering 163. The naval sword was voted to Com Rowan, Admiral Farragut being the next highest. Among those who voted for Gen. McClellan was Mrs. Grant.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The amount of subscriptions to the ten-forty loan reported at the Treasury Department yesterday, amounted to $1,064,000. It is ascertained that all the requisitions on the treasury which have passed through the preliminary stages of examination have been paid.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The steamer Champion has arrived from Aspinwall with $282,000 in treasure.

Reports of the Rebel Movements.

STUART AT FREDERICKSBURG AND LEE IN THE VALLEY.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Tribune's Washington special gives a report that the Rebel General Stuart is massing his forces at Fredericksburg, and deserters report that Lee is moving up the Shenandoah Valley.

THE SITUATION.

Information from the rebel lines, as late as Friday morning last, is to the effect that Lee was not, as reported, moving toward the Shenandoah Valley, but was at that time in his old position on the Rapidan.—Such movements of his cavalry as were going on, seemed to be in the nature of reconnoissances to ascertain Grant's purposes, and the fact of Grant's sending out unusually large picket forces, seems to have mystified the enemy on a great many occasions.

Lee's army was preparing for a sudden move, but was seemingly disposed to wait for Grant to open and develop his game.—The movements of our gunboats up the Rappahannock, had raised an alarm in Richmond that Burnside was effecting a landing there; and a new alarm had been raised among the Rebels of a movement by the Federals up the southern side of James river.

The Rebels are divided between the fear that Lee may be invested in Richmond, should he fall back there, and the fear that he may be outflanked by Grant, should he remain in his present position.

Two weeks ago, Lee's forces amounted to 40,000 men, and it is believed that it is now, with the reinforcements he has been able to bring up, not above 85,000 men.

SKIRMISH WITH REBEL GUERILLAS.

On Saturday night a scouting party of the 1st Michigan cavalry, sent out from Alexandria, under command of Lieutenant Jackson, came across a band of rebel guerillas nine miles up the Occoquan road, when a brisk skirmish ensued. Four of the Rebels were wounded and taken prisoners, one of whom has since died. Lieut. Jackson had two of his men slightly wounded, and succeeded in capturing one horse. This party was out 24 hours, marched fifty miles, and drove all of the Rebels out of the neighborhood.

NEW YORK, April 28—An unsuccessful attempt was made on the 18th to destroy the frigate Wabash, off Charleston, by a torpedo boat. The Wabash gave a broadside to her enemy, which sunk her, or she escaped under cover of the heavy fire.
